Whether a project requires marble countertops for a luxury hotel, or floor tiles for a shopping center, Emser Tile offers the products and services that make it a success.

Emser Tile has proven to be one of the country's most comprehensive sources of ceramic tile and natural stone for commercial projects. Our dynamic offering includes a variety of products that are not only attractive, but also durable enough to endure the wear and tear of any commercial environment. Builders have used our materials in a number of settings including hospitality, multi-family, retail, corporate, healthcare and public works.

Combining safety and durability with affordability is of utmost importance in commercial settings. Emser supplies all the products that meet these important criteria, including porcelain tile, granite, marble, slate, travertine, onyx, limestone and glass. Many of our products are designed to coordinate with each other in texture, color and style. They are stocked in a variety of sizes and are available in cut-to-size. We also offer a wide range of coordinating sanitary cove bases, moldings and listellos.

Our diverse products and superior customer service make Emser Tile the perfect choice for all architectural and commercial projects. Please visit our website at www.emser.com.
